A Crack in the China?

03/11/2021

For their latest discussion, Matthew and Joe ponder the issue of tightening regulatory factors in China – what will that mean for China itself, the fortunes of companies and markets there and ultimately for the global economy and markets? Also front-of-mind at the moment is energy, primarily because of short-term issues in the UK, but also generally rising prices and demand, plus a focus on the energy transition around the COP-26 summit.
