This Trust seeks to enhance returns for its shareholders through gearing, in the form of bank borrowings. Gearing can boost the Trust's returns when investments perform well, though losses can be magnified when investments do badly.

The Brunner Investment Trust PLC

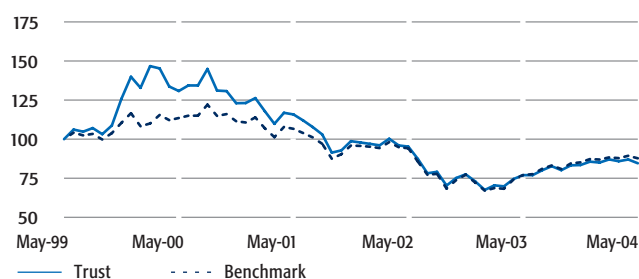

Fund Managers' Review

Global equity markets continue to be troubled by the uncertainty in the Middle East and the prospects of rising interest rates, and as a consequence most major markets saw negative equity returns in May.

The Trust produced a return inline with its composite benchmark, with strong positive contributions from the US financial sector being balanced by weaker returns in Japan and the UK, where the Trust missed out on the Marks & Spencer bid speculation.

Going forward markets are likely to continue to be driven by geopolitical events and the prospects of higher interest rates; as such the portfolio's strategy will continue take these considerations into account when identifying new investment ideas.

Fund Performance

Source: Russell/Mellon/Allianz Dresdner Asset Management. 31st May 99 to 28th May 04, Total Return, net income reinvested, calculation indexed. UK Sterling. Please remember that past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. The value of an investment and the income from it can fall as well as rise as a result of market or currency fluctuations and you may not get back the amount originally invested. This investment trust charges 70% of its annual management fee to the capital account and 30% to revenue. This could lead to a higher level of income but a lower capital return.
